LAST THINGS • 11:15AM • ZOOM

Curious about the future or the "End Times"? There has long been a fascination and much confusion about the Bible's teaching on what we will call "Last Things". Let's clear things up and learn what the Bible has to say about the future for us as individual believing Christians, the Church, and all of Creation.

MONTHLY REFLECTION & PRAYER

INTERNATIONAL: As the total number of new coronavirus cases are rising globally, pray for government leaders to have wisdom and their citizens to adopt practices that prevent further spread.

NATIONAL: As the death toll and number of coronavirus cases rises in some states, continually pray for the safety of our healthcare and essential workers daily. Pray for their hearts to be rooted in the love of Christ as they work. Pray against xenophobia that many are experiencing during these tense times.

CITY: May our many diverse and often divided communities learn to come together and lift up one another especially those who are oppressed. May Asian communities learn about the histories and stories of other people of color who helped paved the way for them to be here. May followers of Christ lead in humility and live as citizens of a heavenly country.

CHURCH: As we make preparations for the day we are able to return to gather to worship and fellowship in person, may we not give up meeting together online but encourage one another all the more. May we persevere and return strengthened.

CHURCH LEADERSHIP: May the Holy Spirit guide our leaders into the truth that is freeing and embolden them to be embody the values of the kingdom over the ways of the world. May they shepherd this flock with the love of Christ and not by their own will.

ESM: Whether we feel uncertain of the future or have gotten comfortable in our "new normal", may we draw all the more nearer to God with confident hope and strengthen one another for the next season. May we make the most of every opportunity.

WORSHIP:

God, who is our hope,
who is our living water,
who is our healer,
who provides us freedom,
and who gives us life,
transform us anew.
Use us as vessels for your purpose.
We ask all these in in the name of the Father, of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit,
Amen.
